ADMINISTRATOR'S CORNER

'Among the Apostles'

Ah! to be in that sturdy boat
at the edge of that rippling sea:
Among those blessed fishermen, to be part of their destiny!

To hear His invitation: 'If you come and follow me
You will catch much more than fish, my friends,
'round these shores of Galilee.'

Ah! To stride with Him those countless miles and with Him to be truly free; To thrill in those shining moments, when He smiled – and smiled at me! Oh chosen Twelve!

In Heaven you were as you walked in His company:
Would I could race through the centuries
and His choice could fall on me!

Ah! Grace indeed! His choice did fall, and I trembled in the Spirit's love As 'Da quaesumus'* rang through the hallowed stones of the arches high above.

And the centuries since that day
by the shore to Him matter not the least.

All is 'now' to Him: so among the Twelve I stand,
for I am now a priest!

REFLECTION FOR SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES

“But who do you say that I am?” What if Jesus asked this question today? How would people respond? Some might focus on his role in history, saying, “You are the founder of the Christian religion.” Others might describe his work: “You are a teacher, a healer, a spiritual guide.” Perhaps there are some who would identify him by his character, suggesting that he is a loving, generous, compassionate, and forgiving role model. But surely some would answer in the same spirit as Peter in today’s reading, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

This is a profound statement of faith. To call Jesus “the Christ” is to profess that he is the Messiah, the long-awaited savior of God’s people. To call him the Son of God is to profess that he is not only a miracle working man, he is also divine. Among the disciples being questioned, Peter was the one who responded with this real insight into Jesus’ identity. “Flesh and blood has not revealed this to you,” Jesus replied to Peter, “but my heavenly Father.” In other words, recognizing Jesus as our savior and our God isn’t something we figure out on our own. It’s a spiritual insight that comes through faith.

Jesus did many amazing things while he walked the earth. He gave us a powerful example of love and forgiveness and he offered us teachings that help direct our lives. But we are called to see even more than these historical facts; as Christians we are called to recognize him as the Christ. Through faith, we know who Jesus really is: our God and our Savior. Thus, we are called to give him more than our respect and admiration as a remarkable man. We are called to give him our full allegiance and to worship him as the one true God.
